

God Will Teach & Guide Me

To know. To do. These are two entirely different things! Children and adults alike often struggle with doing what we know is right. The good news is that our Savior's promise belongs both to our kids and to us:

I will . . . teach you in the way you should go.

Psalm 32:8

Fear of consequences can keep outward behavior in line, at least for a while. But growth in faith and love matures only when Jesus' forgiving love is at work in our hearts.

So teach your child God's will—starting with the Commandments (Exodus 20:3–17). Impose consequences for misbehavior when necessary. But emphasize—most of all—Jesus' limitless grace.

© 2017 CTA, Inc. Permission to make photocopies or reproduce by any other mechanical or electronic means is granted and is intended for use within a church or other Christian organization, but not for resale.

#GWT7DF

Scripture quotation is from the ESV® Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version®), copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

God Will Teach & Guide Me

Each day brings many choices. We sometimes wonder what to do. We sometimes know what's right, but doing it is hard!

Here are some ways God will teach and guide you:

- Listen—really listen—to your pastor, parents, and teachers.
- Read the Bible whenever you can.
- Ask questions when you don't understand.
- Ask Jesus to remind you how VERY much he loves you.
- Ask Jesus to help you honor him in all you do.

God Will Teach & Guide Me

To know. To do. These are two entirely different things! Children and adults alike often struggle with doing what we know is right. The good news is that our Savior's promise belongs both to our kids and to us:

I will . . . teach you in the way you should go.

Psalm 32:8

Fear of consequences can keep outward behavior in line, at least for a while. But growth in faith and love matures only when Jesus' forgiving love is at work in our hearts.

So teach your child God's will—starting with the Commandments (Exodus 20:3–17). Impose consequences for misbehavior when necessary. But emphasize—most of all—Jesus' limitless grace.

© 2017 CTA, Inc. Permission to make photocopies or reproduce by any other mechanical or electronic means is granted and is intended for use within a church or other Christian organization, but not for resale.

#GWT7DF

Scripture quotation is from the ESV® Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version®), copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

God Will Teach & Guide Me

Each day brings many choices. We sometimes wonder what to do. We sometimes know what's right, but doing it is hard!

Here are some ways God will teach and guide you:

- Listen—really listen—to your pastor, parents, and teachers.
- Read the Bible whenever you can.
- Ask questions when you don't understand.
- Ask Jesus to remind you how VERY much he loves you.
- Ask Jesus to help you honor him in all you do.

